

Las Vegas Scavenger Hunt for Kids

In and around Caesar's Palace:

1. This statue is a replica of one of the most famous statues in the world. _____
2. This restaurant serves a an ice cream sundae worth $1000. _____
3. This shrine weighs 8,000+ lbs and is 14 feet tall. _____
4. Gamblers rub this heavy weight's glove for luck. _____

In and around the Bellagio:

5. This spot is home to the world's tallest chocolate fountain. _____
6. This spot is full of seasonally themed vegetation. _____
7. This piece of artwork is made of 2,000 hand-blown glass blossoms. _____
8. Where the water dances in sync with music. _____

In and around the Excalibur, Luxor, and Mandalay Bay:

9. This show rotates 30 horses through the production. _____
10. This hotel was originally going to be named Project Paradise. _____
11. This feature is 101 ft. high, making it taller than the original in Egypt. _____
12. This attraction has a tank that holds more than 1 million gallons of water. _____
13. This hotel has a Beam that is visible from an airplane on a clear night. _____

In and around the Palazzo and Venetian:

14. This hotel has 2 Canals, one at 536,000 gallons and another at 278,000 gallons. _____
15. This tower is 315 ft. tall, nearly as tall as the 323-ft. original in Venice. _____
16. There are no 4th, 13th, or 14th floors in this hotel. _____
17. The Venetian Colonnade's marble floor was hand fitted and modeled of the floor from this famous church in Venice. _____